

AUSTRALIA-CHINA LEGAL PROFESSION DEVELOPMENT PROGRAM 2009

Madam HE Yanhong (Jenny)

Madam He Yanhong is an Associate with Henan Golden Diamond Law Firm. Madam He leads and mentors a team of young lawyers to provide legal services covering a range of practice areas, including corporate matters, foreign direct investment, M&A work and securities. Madame He also deals with capital raising and reorganisation of listed companies in Henan, due diligence on target companies and drafting legal documents. While in Australia, Madam He is interested in studying dispute solving methods.

Madam He has a Master's Degree in Economic Law from Zhengzhou University Law School. Madam He has previously acted as an interpreter for high-level legal delegations from Australia and reciprocal high-level Chinese delegations to Australia. Madame He is keen to further develop her legal skills and knowledge, and hopes to share her experiences in China with her Australian counterparts to build mutual understanding and cooperation.

Madam DENG Yalan (Deborah)

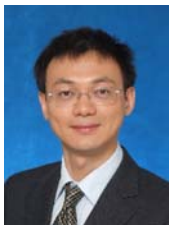

Madam Deng Yalan is a Partner with Beijing Kaiwen Law Firm, specialising in foreign direct investment, real estate and enterprise investments. Madam Deng also works as an arbitrator for the Chongqing Arbitration Commission, and is Vice Director of the Chongqing Bar Association's Foreign Related and WTO Committee. Madam Deng wishes to concentrate on dispute resolution methods, including ADR and arbitration, during her time in Australia.

Madam Deng has a Master's Degree in Civil and Commercial Law from the Southwest University of Political Science and Law, and a Master's of Business Administration from Chongqing University. Madam Deng was named in the Top Ten Female Attorneys in Chongqing. Madam Deng has undertaken a number of international legal training programs, including the Lord Chancellor's Training Scheme for Young Chinese Lawyers in London and Hong Kong (SAR), a 5-week Enterprise and Investment Lawyers Course in Rome (certificate issued by the International Development Law Organisation), Law Firm Management Training in Shanghai (organised by the All China Lawyers Association and Lovells Law Firm, Britain), and WTO training courses in Chongqing.

Madam WU Yueqin (Cathy)

Madam Wu Yueqin is an Attorney at Law and Trademark Agent with Watson & Band Law Offices in Shanghai. Madam Wu specialises in foreign-related intellectual property and corporate issues. She has participated in several projects for drafting anti-counterfeiting legislation proposals on the client's behalf. Madam Wu wishes to study competition policy and intellectual property (with an international client focus) and to expand her knowledge of Australian law and legal culture while in Australia. Madam Wu has a Bachelor's degree in Law, majoring in International Economic Law and English from Shanghai International Studies University Law School.

Mr. ZHU Xiaochuan (Matt)

Mr. Zhu Xiaochuan is an Attorney at Law with Jiangsu Zhong Tian Xin De Law Firm, specialising in foreign direct investments, trusts and corporations, employment, banking and capital markets law. Mr. Zhu is keen to focus on banking & finance during his time in Australia. Mr. Zhu has a Master's degree in International Law from East China University of Political Science and Law.

Mr CAI Xuejun (Charles)

Mr Cai Xuejun is a lawyer with Zhejiang Tongji Law Firm. Mr Cai wishes to specialise in enterprise bankruptcy law, corporate law and corporate governance during his time in Australia. Mr Cai has a Bachelor's Degree in Economics from Zhejiang University and has completed Civil and Business Law in-service training class, also at Zhejiang University.

Mr OU Jiangang (James)

Mr Ou Jiangang is an Attorney at law with Zhejiang T&C Law Firm, specialising in corporate finance and M&A. Mr Ou is interested in cross-border transactions, specifically in the energy and mineral industry, and in banking, trust, securities and finance, and wishes to pursue these topics during his studies in Australia. Mr Ou has a Master's degree (JM) in Law from the East China University of Politics and Law, and a Bachelor's degree in English from the Southwest University of Politics and Law. Mr Ou was a Visiting Scholar to the International Law Institute (Washington D.C.) and a Visiting Counsel to the International Trade Department and to Alston & Bird (Washington D.C. office) in 2007.

Mr WANG Yi (Tony)

Mr Wang Yi is a Litigation Associate with the Beijing Goodwill Law Firm, specialising in civil, criminal, commercial and administrative litigation. Mr Wang is interested in studying dispute resolution during his time in Australia. Mr Wang has a Bachelor's degree in Law from Liaoning University Law School.

Error! Objects cannot be created from editing field codes.

Mr LUO Huaixi

Mr Luo Huaixi is Deputy Division Director of the Department of Agriculture, Natural Resources and Environmental Protection within the Legislative Affairs Office of the State Council. Mr Luo works with the legislation related to agriculture and land, and wishes to use his time in Australia to learn about the Australian land tribunal system: laws and regulations, operation and proposed development. Mr Luo has a Master's degree in Law from the China University of Political Science and Law, and has undertaken short-term training in English at the Beijing Foreign Studies University.

Madam ZHOU Wen

Madam Zhou Wen is an International Case Manager with the China International Economic and Trade Arbitration Commission (CIETAC), specialising in international economic law, civil procedure and commercial arbitration and conciliation. Madam Zhou handles cases across different business sectors, including international trade, joint venture (investment), construction, real estate, finance, insurance, barter trade and advertising. Madam Zhou is a member of the Award Scrutiny Group, in charge of reviewing both jurisdiction decisions and draft awards. During her time in Australia, Madam Zhou is keen to undertake a comparative study of the Australian arbitration system, improve her knowledge of the common law system, and learn about the role of Australian courts in the enforcement and supervision of arbitration. Madam Zhou has a Master's degree in Law from China University of Political Science and Law.